My Account*Payments*Forms & Requests ▶*Financial Aid*Counseling*Important information to review before requesting a refund of a credit balance.

- Set up direct deposit to allow your refund to be deposited to your U.S. checking or savings account
- Verify that you have an existing credit on your account before submitting your request. Anticipated credits are funds that have not been received by the University, and therefore cannot be refunded.
- If the credit in your account is due to a Parent Plus/Alternative Loan and/or Payment Plan payment(s), the borrower or bill payer must complete the Refund Authorization Form prior to releasing the funds requested.
- Credit Card Payments: In the event a credit card was used to pay any student charges, credit balances in the students account will first be applied to the credit card used, with any remaining balance paid to the student.
